CHAPTER 48 OF THE ACTS OF 1871

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE TRUSTEES OF THE CONSUMPTIVES' HOME

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Charles Cullis, William Claflin, Alexander H. Vinton, Edward S. Rand, Henry F. Durant, Jacob Sleeper, and Abner Kingman, their associates and successors, are hereby made a corporation by the name of the Trustees of the Consumptives' Home, for the treatment, care, and relief of consumptive patients, and other sick, suffering, and indigent persons, with all the rights, powers, and privileges, and subject to all the duties, restrictions, and liabilities set forth in all general laws which now are or may hereafter be in force applicable to such corporations.

SECT. 2. Said corporation may take and hold in fee simple, or any less estate by purchase, gift, grant, devise, or otherwise, any lands, tenements, or other estate, real or personal, to an amount not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved February 24, 1871.

CHAPTER 47 OF THE ACTS OF 1891

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TRUSTEES OF THE CONSUMPTIVES' HOME TO HOLD ADDITIONAL REAL AND PERSONAL ESTATE.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. The Trustees of the Consumptives' Home, a corporation established by Chapter forty-eight of the Acts of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, is hereby authorized to hold real and personal estate for the purposes named in said act of incorporation to an amount not exceeding three hundred thousand dollars in addition to the amount said corporation is now authorized to hold.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved March 6, 1891.

DR. CHARLES CULLIS

CULLIS CONSUMPTIVES' HOME

FOUNDER

THE Home was founded by Dr. Charles Cullis, of Boston, in 1864, and incorporated in 1871.

LOCATION

It is situated 560 Blue Hill Avenue, corner of Seaver Street. It is opposite one of the entrances of Franklin Park, in that part of Boston called Dorchester Centre.

THE ESTATE

Consists of about six acres of high, dry, sandy soil, beautifully laid out by a landscape gardener, with fine buildings, and is free from any incumbrance.

ACCOMMODATION

There are forty beds, with a bright, airy, sunny room for each patient. Twenty on the first floor for men, and twenty on the second floor for women.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

1. Consumptives in the last stages of the disease.
2. Must be without means of support, or friends able to care for them.
3. Acute and not chronic cases, as our accommodations are limited, and a larger number can thus be helped.
4. Cases that do not require surgical treatment.

APPLICATIONS

Can be made in person to the Superintendent at the Home, bringing a physician's certificate of condition, or by telephone (615 Roxbury), between 9 and 10.30 A.M., or by letter.

VISITORS

Are received from 10 to 11.30 and from 2 to 4, except Friday and Sunday. When patients are dangerously ill, friends can see them at any time.

THE MANAGEMENT

This is a Protestant home, open to patients of any nationality, color, or sex. It is non-sectarian and in the hands of a board of fifteen trustees, none of whom receive any compensation for their valuable services.

. LETTERS AND PACKAGES

Letters in the interest of the work should be addressed to Rev. E. D. MALLORY, Treasurer, or to Mrs. CHARLES CULLIS, General Manager, Cullis Consumptives' Home, 560 Blue Hill Avenue, Dorchester Centre, Mass.

All GOODS and PACKAGES for the work should be addressed to Rev. E. D. MALLORY, Superintendent, Cullis Consumptives' Home, Dorchester Centre, Mass.

IN MEMORIAM

ON June 5, 1904, we were called to lament the death of our beloved trustee, the Hon. Elisha S. Converse.

We would here record our grateful testimony to his faithfulness as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Cullis Consumptives' Home for nineteen years. We are grateful that we shared with the community in which he lived his benign presence, his wise counsels, and his most generous benefactions. We recognize ourselves as great debtors to this man of God.

By the death of Hon. William Claflin, on January 5, 1905, we were bereft of our first and only president of the Board of Trustees, who faithfully served for forty years, his interest unabated. The following resolution was placed upon our records:

When a friend who could be depended upon at all times, a citizen and statesman of noble character and unblemished reputation, a generous and wise supporter of every form of philanthropy, and a Christian who honored his profession in word and deed, passes away, the sense of loss is heartfelt and widespread.

Since the death of the Hon. William Claflin removes from the community such a friend, statesman, philanthropist, and humble and devoted follower of the Master, therefore

Resolved, that we, the Board of Trustees of the Cullis Consumptives' Home, while sincerely grateful to God for the long and eminently useful life of the deceased, have special occasion for sorrow, being deprived of a wise counsellor who cherished a constant and deep regard for the Home, who was one of its charter members and its president from the day of its incorporation to the time of his death.

CHANGES IN THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

By unanimous vote, Hon. Elbridge Torrey, who has rendered invaluable service as trustee, was elected president, to fill the vacancy made by the death of Hon. William Claflin. The deep interest and enthusiasm with which he assumes this new responsibility, together with his wise judicial counsel, are of unspeakable aid to us.

The vacancy made by the death of Hon. William Claflin as trustee has been filled by the election of Mr. Timothy Smith, a well-known and honored resident of Roxbury.

To our great regret, Mr. William N. Hartshorn, the great Sunday-school worker, greatly pressed by manifold duties, was debarred from attending the business meetings, and with his sense of obligation to duty, preferred to resign. This vacancy has been filled by the election of the Rev. A. C. Dixon, D.D., the noble and beloved pastor of the Ruggles Street Baptist Church.

LETTER FROM MRS. CULLIS

Two years have passed, and a new report is due. Thankful am I to be in the home country where I can add a word of Godspeed; one of cheer and thankfulness that "God is our refuge and strength" in time of need; that dear and faithful friends are coöperating to make the "work of faith" a continued blessing, not only to the sick ones, but to the individual lives of those who visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction.

We find the religion of Jesus Christ satisfying to all, just as soon as, by the Spirit's power, longings are felt, sin repented of, and "the entrance of the Word giveth light." Come among us and see the sad looks betokening a heavy heart, as one and another enter the Home! Come again and watch the gradual change! A little farther on you will see the brightened eye and satisfied smile, and hear one say, "My burden is gone, Jesus has lifted it and become the forgiving Saviour, the light and joy of my life."

A point of great interest I would mention in corroboration of what has been declared by physicians and experts regarding heredity in tuberculosis. It is a mistaken idea, they declare, and I can make a statement right here as a contribution of fact.

In our Children's Home we have cared for over a hundred children, born of parents one, and in some cases both, of whom were victims and cared for in the Consumptives' Home. Of this number we know of only three who have died of consumption. These children, taken from pestilential environment, deprived of good air and food, as soon as transplanted to a well-aired, comfortable home, given proper food, ample grounds to play in, and affectionate care, grow robust, and repay one fully for all that is expended on them. How hopeful is work for the young, and God bless every individual who seeks and finds such a service.

I have only to recommend, dear friends, the perusal of the Report that follows, which I trust will convince all our donors of a wise use of their gifts, and give us the hope that they will extend to other friends a knowledge of the work, of the free door it opens to all who suffer poverty, disease, and isolation.

Perhaps some who read this Report may not know how Dr. Cullis, forty years ago, was led to give himself to the care of the poor consumptives.

He was a young physician, with only his daily earnings, but with a heart and life consecrated to God's service. When that is attained, God does his part and makes every slightest circumstance contribute to the fulfillment of the heart's desire.

One day a man called, full of anxiety over a person he had found, far gone in consumption, destitute and homeless.

He asked, "What can be done?" The doctor thought a moment and replied, "I know of no place but the poor house." At that very moment it flashed through his mind like a spoken word, "There is your work!" Since the light of his life had gone out in a sore bereavement (and by this a new life entered), he had only the one desire to know how he could best serve God and his fellow-men. The above interview led him to pray for such poor sufferers and to long to help them. When he thought of an institution, he knew a large outlay of money would be required, of which he had no surplus. His modesty forbade begging of others. Just then a book fell into his hands, called "The Romance of Charity," and there he read of De Liefde, who, animated by a similar motive, became interested in the forlorn waifs of the street. How should he begin? He had no money, but he thought, "If I do what I can and make a small beginning, surely God will come to my help." So he began to work in his small way and trust God. The doctor reasoned, "If God can do this in Germany, why not in Boston?" For two years he planned and prayed, and then began with just $300 in his pocket, took a house in Willard Street, West End, had it dedicated, with a small gathering of pastors and friends. Only a one-page circular was issued, stating that "a work of faith" had started, with trust in the promises of God's Word.

Soon a friend offered herself as matron. A beginning was made, with one patient and meager furnishings. Gifts flowed in, while the number of patients increased. How the heart of the doctor was gladdened and strengthened. He continued his medical practice, and devoted all his income, above his immediate needs, to the maintenance of the work. Thus, from small beginnings, grew a large and widespreading agency for good, not only among the sick, but among the well; these wondered at its growth, and sought to understand a faith that compelled such success and blessing.

I must not intrude longer on these pages, but if any would know more, we have early reports and books that tell of the way.

Our hearts' longing is for all who name the name of Christ to enter into the fullness of blessing there is in an individual life, one that "serves the Lord wholly," bringing peace, health, and happiness; one that brings all the forces of omnipotent Love to guide and rule our being.

L. A. C.

ROXBURY, November 27, 1905.

REPORT OF SECRETARY

THE CONSUMPTIVES' HOME

I will sing of the mercies of the Lord for ever.
— Psalm 89: 1.

WE greet our friends and benefactors with grateful, cheerful hearts, as a glance at our journal for the past two years brings to view the record of God's marvellous care of the work he has given us to do. In 1904 we entered upon our fortieth year.

The trustees thought it most fitting that mention should be made in the churches of our anniversary. Park Street Church, Boston; First Baptist Church, Commonwealth Avenue, Boston; Second Congregational Church, Dorchester; Ruggles Street Baptist Church, Roxbury; Temple Baptist Church, Dorchester; and Warren Avenue Baptist Church, Boston, were opened freely and heartily to the superintendent, in each of which an address was made by him, giving a brief account of the work of the Home. The warm support of the pastors of these and other churches which made reference to the anniversary, called forth the gratitude of our trustees and friends. The sum of nearly $1,000 was collected in one of these churches through the kindness of two of the trustees.

By the efforts of the "Cullis Home Auxiliary" during the last two years, the sum of $1,937.10 was raised, and the custom of an annual "Donation Day" was established. The gifts have increased each year with its observance, both from friends and from business firms, who have generously contributed, to all of whom we are most grateful. From many and varied sources the gifts have come, and often from those who have but little of this world's goods. Gifts from those who live in our city and suburbs increase, which betoken the growing kindliness and interest of those who see more intimately the management and daily work.

There have been but few vacancies in the wards, and often there is a waiting list of applicants for admission. For the first time a mother and little son were received at the same time, coming from abject poverty, the husband a drunkard. How happy were they to be together during these last months (for the mother was soon called Home), but the boy recovered sufficiently to go to a relative. Varied and touching are the cases which come to us. How great is our joy to be able to give relief and to cause their dying hours to be peaceful.

The Home is still maintained by voluntary contributions. The income from our permanent fund, of between $14,000 and $15,000, is but a drop in the bucket, as our expenses average about $1,000 per month. We are praying and believing that this fund will be enlarged by the generous public, that our doors may always stand open wide to help those in suffering, affliction, and poverty, for only such are received, after a careful investigation by the superintendent. Many remarkable answers to prayer in times of need could be recorded had we the space.

Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas are bright spots each year. For twenty-five years Rev. Dr. D. W. Waldron has come with his workers to bring Easter cheer, visits most deeply appreciated and enjoyed by all. For many years a Christmas dinner for the patients has been kindly provided by Captain D—— and his wife. As we do not have the tree celebration until New Year's Day, this has been an acceptable substitute. The Christmas tree, with its boughs always well weighted with gifts for each patient, is made possible by the generosity of two friends whose remembrance of us is of as long duration as the visits of Dr. Waldron. Other friends contribute at this time as well. How much we owe them and how sincere our thanks!

The Thanksgiving table is never forgotten by the members of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Presbyterian Church, Boston; most bountiful are their gifts of vegetables, fruit, and delicacies. There are other friends and churches which supply money for turkeys and supplies. Could we adequately express how much we appreciate all the kind gifts, we should be very glad. We heartily extend our thanks to the daily press for the many favors accorded us. To Thompson's Spa we are indebted for almost daily gifts of pastry; also to a Roxbury bakeshop for bread, etc. Tickets for electric-car rides and carriage drives are furnished yearly, which conduce greatly to bring strength and cheer to our invalids.

Many a pleasant evening has been afforded us by musicians and elocutionists, together with Dr. Dixwell's annual visit with his stringed quartet and soloist.

We are greatly blessed in our matron, Mrs. Torrey, who wisely and faithfully discharges the duties which are of such vital importance in the management of the household. Nurses and domestics alike cheerfully administer to the comfort of the sick.

One is struck upon entering the wards with the neatness and the sanitary precautions which prevail. There is an air of homelikeness, as in each room is a little cherished plant, with bright pictures and cards from friends.

We cordially invite friends to visit our patients, thus giving us an opportunity to greet and thank them as well.

THE SPINAL HOME

The work of the Spinal Home continues with but little change. Seven have been cared for during the last two years, and four are now in the Home. At present the patients are not entirely helpless or bedridden. The kind visits of friends are always comforting to these shut-ins.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME

Here an unusual condition obtains. Last year, our good matron being called to the care of an aged mother, made it necessary for us to provide for our children elsewhere. Fortunately, three were old enough to care for themselves, and they found positions. Three, whose parents have died in the Home, are now at the Farm School, Thompson's Island. We were fortunate to find them so good a home, where a wise discipline and training exist. We had thought this a reformatory school, as have many others. On the contrary, it only receives good boys, who are needy. They are taught, besides their books, to work on the farm and in other useful pursuits, so that every year they send forth sturdy characters, who come to fill positions of honor and trust. Mr. Mallory frequently visits them, finding them robust and happy.

Now we have a mother and her eight young children. The father is in the Home in consumption. The family were brought to our notice by a minister in the neighborhood, who, with the assistance of the Associated Charities, had cared for the family. These friends are most glad to continue their help to the mother and children, while we give them the house and take care of the father.

This fills the Home to its limit, so to take more children we should need another building.

The caring for the children of consumptives, as is stated in the Introduction, has proved most encouraging, snatching them from contagion, and strengthening them to go forth into the world, not as hindrances, but helps to the state.

THE ABIDING COMFORTER

“ I SHOULD think your Home would be a very sad place, with so many people sick and dying,” remarked a friend to the superintendent. “ Yes,” was the reply; “ you might naturally think so, but as a matter of fact, it is one of the brightest places I know. We have some of the happiest people you ever met.”

God abides with us. In his presence is fullness of joy; at his right hand are pleasures forevermore. True, many are sick and dying, but we regard death to the Christian as did William Lloyd Garrison, “ as simply an exchange of spheres for the better.” It is the opening of the gate of life as we enter into the eternal city for our coronation. Surely there is nothing sad about being crowned with glory and honor. We delight in calling our patients God’s millionaires, having nothing and yet possessing all things. But is it not sad when laid aside from service? The patients are led by the spirit of God to see that the divine plan for their lives includes the days of feebleness, and as mother’s love seems tenderest to her helpless child, so does God care for his own. By a patient and cheerful resignation to his will they can shine for the glory of Christ, and by the ministry of intercession they can perform the highest and mightiest service that can be rendered on earth.

Our friends will be glad to know that some of the most triumphant deaths have been those of Roman Catholics, who have by simple faith given their hearts to Jesus, and by the witness of the Spirit have found the joy unspeakable and full of glory. Their love for the Bible and delight in it as a message from the Master to their own hearts can never be forgotten. Death to them was the supreme hour of triumph, when they passed from earth into the immediate presence of their Lord. They needed no other consolation, they could have no greater. Christ was their Great High Priest, and his prayer was now fulfilled: "Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory."

This is to certify that I have examined the book and accounts of Rev. E. D. Mallory, Treasurer of the Cullis Consumptives' Home for the two years ending September 30, 1905, and find that they have been correctly kept and properly balanced, with satisfactory vouchers for all payments. The Bonds and Certificates of Stock were found in the vaults of the International Trust Company, Boston, in accordance with the statement of his account.
